

Working Ethics into the Conversation: Introducing STEM Faculty to Teaching Ethics

Online Ethics Center
FOR ENGINEERING AND SCIENCE

OnlineEthics.org

EXPLORE HANDS-ON APPROACHES

Learn about strategies and resources for the classroom, lab, and informal settings, including:

- Ethics Codes
- Model Policies
- Science Fiction
- Scenarios
- Case Studies
- Discussion Strategies
- Model Assignments
- Online Ethics Center

LEAVE WITH PERSONALIZED RESOURCES

- Skills and knowledge to fulfill NSF and NIH requirements for providing RCR instruction and ABET ethics education expectations
- Individualized instructional materials for your specific needs
- Connections to a dedicated community of practice

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

- STEM faculty responsible for teaching and training undergraduate and/or graduate students in the classroom or lab

Apply Now

October 22-23, 2019

National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine
500 5th St NW
Washington, DC 20001

No Registration Fee

APPLICATIONS CLOSE JULY 15, 2019

OnlineEthics.org/Workshop-Application.aspx

For questions, please contact Dr. Rosalyn Berne (rberne@nae.edu)

NATIONAL ACADEMY OF ENGINEERING